

Please vote NO on HB5263. It's unbelievable that this is even up for debate. While the rest of the country has recognized and elevated rabbits as pets, CT is taking a step backward in proposing this initiative. This really looks bad for our state.

Thank you,

Sara Coleman